The Pestle
Weed School

An International
Residential Co-Educational
School With A Difference

Welcome to TPWS!

- In the Lap of Nature - The campus spread over 50 acres, is bordered by a historical stream and reserved forests with beautiful views of the Himalayan Ranges.
- Individualized Attention - It is our enduring goal that the aspirations and potential of every student are fostered, nurtured, and challenged. Our focus is to provide the scaffold upon which each student not only achieves academic success, but continues to develop a strong character that is also kind and empathetic, embracing cultural diversity.
- Rich, Multi-Layered Experience - The Pestle Weed School is a Co-educational, International residential school boarding (ages 5-18) students from more than 10 countries, and from almost all States of India. This diversity provides a rich, multi-layered experience. Students learn to recognize and value the importance of each person’s customs and traditions, as they engage with one another and contribute to the unique and dynamic learning environment.
- Inspiring The Pursuit Of Lifelong Learning - Inspiring the pursuit of lifelong learning, an appreciation for beauty, and the development of character. These values, coupled with physical activity, artistic endeavors, and service to others, ensure that our students are well equipped for life beyond the school walls.
- Family Style Boarding Community & Balanced Development - Diverse extracurricular activities and clubs, community service and leadership opportunities, and cultural excursions balance their academic work. In the family-style boarding community, the well-being and safety of each student is paramount.
- Building Global Competencies - At TPWS India, students from all over the world receive education to meet global requirements that provides them with the global competencies required for a future of increasing cross-cultural interdependence, rapid technological change and critical environmental challenges. Our individualized attention to each student allows us to work with them to discover where their individual strengths lie. Personalized development plans allow for one-on-one counseling to help students identify, and apply to universities that best fit their educational and career aspirations. Our students gain acceptance to excellent universities in India and overseas.
- Not For Profit - The Pestle Weed School is run by a Not for Profit Educational Trust. Our “for good” philosophy allows us to subsidize our fee structure, ensuring we offer International standards at almost 50% of the cost charged by similar institutions.

"TPWS believes not just in excellence, but in kindness."
