

Adverb

An adverb is a word that modifies a verb, an adjective or an adverb itself.

e.g. This is a very famous book.

Types of Adverb

1. Adverbs of Time

They tell us when the action takes place.

e.g. I went for a movie yesterday.

Vicky finishes all his task early.

Ago, after, early, yesterday, quickly, recently, today, tonight, tomorrow etc are used as adverbs of time.

2. Adverb of Manner

They tell us how or in what manner an action takes place.

e.g. Sita speaks English fluently.

Read the instructions carefully.

Peacefully, fluently, quickly, certainly, loudly, carefully, gladly, badly, fast etc are used as adverbs of manner.

3. Adverb of Frequency

They tell us how often an action or event takes place.

e.g. Jeet practices violin regularly.

Nandu will come again.

Seldom, often, regularly, never, ever, again, frequently, always, usually etc are used as adverbs of frequency.

4. Adverb of Place

They tell us where an action takes place.

e.g. She took the lady inside.

Arjun searched for water everywhere.

Near, far, away, inside, everywhere, anywhere, here etc are used as adverbs of place.

5. Adverb of Quantity/Extent/Degree

They tell us to which extent an adjective is modified.

e.g. Your pen is too nice.

Poorab is little tall.

Partly, fully, pretty, almost, very, more, much, any, none, too, little, are used as adverbs of quantity/extent/degree.

Directions (Q. Nos. 1-25) Fill in the blanks with the correct adverb from the options.

1. Her brother did not bathe as he had fever.
(a) tomorrow (b) now
(c) yesterday (d) ago
2. my mother is preparing breakfast in the kitchen.
(a) Then (b) Ago (c) Before (d) Now
3. Nobody will celebrate his birthday
(a) tomorrow (b) yesterday
(c) earlier (d) then
4. Kavita goes to temple with her mother.
(a) ago (b) yesterday
(c) tomorrow (d) always
5. We have not submitted our forms
(a) yet (b) then (c) now (d) before
6. Rohit gets up early.
(a) ever (b) again (c) always (d) once
7. We have gone to Agra.
(a) always (b) never (c) after (d) ever
8. His father has warned me
(a) always (b) never
(c) twice (d) ever
9. He runs than your brother.
(a) fastly (b) fast
(c) faster (d) with fast
10. She could not reach on time because she was walking very
(a) loud (b) loudly (c) badly (d) slowly
11. They beat him
(a) badly (b) lovingly
(c) warnty (d) carefully
12. He was wandering in search of water.
(a) near (b) everywhere
(c) within (d) above
13. We stayed at our home all the day and went
(a) somewhere (b) everywhere
(c) nowhere (d) anywhere
14. I saw him walking out side the room and called him
(a) out (b) in (c) up (d) above
15. This book seems inspiring.
(a) much (b) more (c) lot (d) very
16. They are poor to buy this house.
(a) very (b) too (c) a little (d) much
17. My uncle is clever that nobody can cheat him.
(a) so (b) very (c) much (d) a lot
18. will he put this knife?
(a) When (b) Where (c) Whom (d) Who
19. did you see him?
(a) Whom (b) What (c) Where (d) Which
20. Due to fever I could not go
(a) no where (b) everywhere
(c) somewhere (d) anywhere
21. He studied and scored 92% marks.
(a) fast (b) hardly
(c) hard (d) carefully
22. The boy was wise to understand it.
(a) much (b) very (c) so (d) too
23. I have not understand the story so I will have to read it
(a) never (b) now (c) again (d) once
24. She was smarter than her brother.
(a) too (b) much (c) very (d) so
25. Manoj is to pluck this mango.
(a) tall much (b) much tall
(c) taller (d) enough tall

Answers

[illegible]